

Thank you!

This special issue of the Journal of Presbyterian History was made possible through the generous support of numerous individuals, congregations, and other church bodies. As of December 2007, the following congregations, presbyteries, and individuals sponsored the publication and distribution of this issue celebrating 200 years of African American Presbyterian history:

First Presbyterian Church, Houston, TX
Elmwood United Presbyterian Church, East Orange, NJ
Memorial Drive Presbyterian Church, Houston, TX
Rutgers Presbyterian Church, New York, NY
St. James Presbyterian Church, Greensboro, NC
St. James Presbyterian Church, Charleston, SC
Presbytery of Chicago
Presbytery of New Hope
Presbytery of Philadelphia
Presbytery of New York City
Presbytery of Tropical Florida
The Reverend Dr. Eugene S. Callender
The Reverend and Mrs. St. Paul Epps
The Reverend Dr. J. Oscar McCloud
Mrs. Mildred E. McGee
The Reverend and Mrs. James F. Reese
The Reverend Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Turner
The Reverend Euton E. Williams
Dr. and Mrs. Gayraud S. Wilmore

Presbyterian Historical Society
425 Lombard Street, Philadelphia, PA 19147
(215) 627-1852, www.history.pcusa.org

The Presbyterian Historical Society is the national archives of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and its primary historical research center. Our mission is to collect, preserve and share the story of the American Presbyterian experience with Presbyterians, the scholarly community, and the general public.